Migrant Justice Announcement

Who is my neighbour? The Gospel call us to an expansive view of our neighbourhoods. When you think of who your neighbour is, who comes to mind? Stats Canada reports that currently there are over 2.5 million non-permanent residents like temporary workers and students living in Canada. Loving our neighbour includes supporting our migrant neighbours. One way we can do this is by joining with others in the United Church of Canada to advocate for better living conditions and policies to protect migrant rights - Be part of Migrant Justice Network!

Fall Session: Tuesday November 24, 2026 7pm-8:30pm

ET. We gather quarterly to share what is happening locally & nationally, connect to others doing similar work, discuss intersecting issues, offer and/or seek to provide updates on civil society and ecumenical groups doing local / national work, and advise the work of the General Council of the UCC. Check with Darrell how to register.

Volunteer Opportunity the Maker's Market is on November 7. This is a good fundraiser for the church. But we cannot do it without the help of the congregation. Please see the sign-up sheet in the Narthex and if you can volunteer some time, it would be greatly appreciated!

Questions: - Marcy will be happy to answer. Her email address is dbrisbourne@myaccess.ca

Books - Darrell is downsizing his library.

For this Sunday (Oct 25) only In the Narthex, there is a table with books to take for free (no returns). (Photo to come in separate email.)

New Members

If you are thinking of transferring your membership to Westminster, please let Darrell know. We will recognize new members on November 1.

Volunteer Opportunity: Moss Art Creative Project

We're looking for creative volunteers to help design and build five unique moss art frames for our space! It will be a fun, hands-on project combining preserved moss, natural wood, bark, textures, and other decorative elements to create beautiful, nature-inspired artwork. No artistic experience is necessary—just bring your imagination and willingness to help!

Project Goal: To create five unique moss art frames using preserved moss, wood, bark, natural textures, and decorative accents.

Interested in Helping? Volunteers can sign up by providing their name, phone number or email address, and how they would like to contribute.

Here from the Beginning exhibit coming to Regina; more hosts welcome We're delighted to welcome Here From the Beginning back to the west. The travelling exhibit highlights stories and contributions of Black people in The United Church of Canada. The exhibit will be at Eastside United Church in Regina November 4-7 and we thank them and their community partners for hosting. Please come for a visit if you can.

Bread Sunday - What can be better than the smell of fresh bread, especially while its in the oven. On November 1, we will collect loaves of bread and monetary donations that will be given to Carmichael. Let us help feed the hungry people in our community with bread that is given with love.

Celebration Cake Sunday - on the first Sunday of each month, we celebrate birthdays and anniversaries of that month. Come down and have some cake and refreshments and if you are celebrating something, have your photo taken with the cake. Don't be shy and you don't have to disclose your age!
